Student Income Information

The most effective method for verifying income information is through the FUTURE Act Direct Data Exchange (FA-DDX), available within the FAFSA form. Generally, no additional documentation is required to verify 2023 income details transferred into the student's FAFSA via the FA-DDX, provided the information remains unaltered by the FAFSA filer.

Instructions: Check at least two of the boxes for one of the sections below. Applies to the student and the student's spouse if the student is married.

Taxes

- The student has filed a 2023 Tax Return (IRS Form 1040).
 - The student did/will consent to transfer tax information onto the FAFSA form using the FA-DDX.
 - The student will provide the college with a signed 2023 Tax Return (IRS Form 1040).

No Taxes

- The student did not and will not file a 2023 Tax Return (IRS Form 1040).
 - The student was required to and did provide parent information on the FAFSA form and is NOT required to provide the college a 2023 IRS Letter of Non-Filing obtained from the IRS.
 - The student was not required to provide parent information on the FAFSA form and WILL provide the college a 2023 IRS Letter of Non-Filing obtained from the IRS.
 - The student was not employed and had no income earned from work in 2023.
 - The student had income earned from work but was not required to file a 2023 Tax Return (IRS Form 1040) and will provide the college with all 2023 W-2 Forms. From the W-2 Forms that will be provided, please list the employers name and amount earned in the table below.

Employer's Name	2023 Amount Earned

Copies of all 2023 W-2 Form are required for every employer that issued a W-2. For any employer that did not issue a W-2, please explain why a W-2 was not issued.

Unusual Circumstances: Check all that apply.

- The student and spouse filed separate returns or had a change in marital status after December 31, 2023.
- The student or spouse was victim of IRS Tax-Related Identity Theft.
- The student or spouse filed a non-US Income Tax Return.
- The student or spouse filed an amended IRS Income Tax Return (IRS Form 1040X)

Certification: Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. The student and one parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must sign and date.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
